

(1) [A violation] ANY PERSON WHO VIOLATES ANY PROVISION of this section is GUILTY OF a misdemeanor[, punishable upon] AND ON conviction [by] IS SUBJECT TO a fine of not more than [five hundred dollars (["$500()"] or imprisonment for [one] NOT MORE THAN 1 year[,] or both[;].

(2) [and a] A conviction of any real estate broker or real estate salesman for a violation of this section shall be referred to the Maryland Real Estate Commission for action.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Ch. ____, Acts of 1980, which enacted the Financial Institutions Article, also amended this section to incorporate in it, as new subsection (b), the provisions of Art. 11, § 108H.

Present Art. 11, § 108H deals with financial assistance by "any person, firm, corporation or association" and is not limited to assistance by banking or other financial institutions. Consequently, its placement here, subject to a uniform penalty, was considered more appropriate.

The only other changes are in style.

Article 78 - Public Service Commission Law

(b) A permit is not required for the following:

(9) Armored vehicles used to transport property which consists exclusively of coin, currency, stocks, bonds, securities and negotiable instruments with armed guards in attendance from point of pickup to point of delivery. Provided, however, that such armored car carriers shall comply with the provisions of § 31 (a), (b) and (c) of this article, except as between fixed termini as defined in TITLE 11 OF THE TRANSPORTATION Article [66 1/2, § 1-128. A bank licensed in Maryland may not operate its own armored car service, either as an individual bank or through a holding company].

REVISOR'S NOTE: Ch. ____, Acts of 1980, which enacted the Financial Institutions Article, also amended this section to transfer to FI § 5-505 the last sentence of this section, which prohibits the operation of armored car services by banking institutions, and to correct a cross reference.
